Marking Period:	2	Unit Title:	Unit 2: Roots of American Democracy	Pacing:	30 days
------------------------	---	--------------------	-------------------------------------	----------------	---------

Unit Summary:

In this unit we will evaluate the historical ideas and political philosophies that shaped the development of the U.S. government. We will also summarize key political principles expressed in the foundational documents of the United States and examine the debates and events that led to the writing and ratification of the Constitution. The students will also analyze the ideas expressed in the struggle for independence.

Objectives:

- Students will be able to compare and contrast forms of governance.
- Students will be able to examine the ideals found in the Declaration of Independence, and assess the extent to which they were fulfilled for women, African Americans, and Native Americans during this time period.
- Students will be able to explain why the Declaration of Independence was written and how its key principles evolved to become unifying ideas of American democracy.

- Students will be able to use technology as one form to complete research and analyze various topics.

Essential Questions:

- How did our government begin?
- What did the Declaration of Independence do?

Common Core State Standards/Learning Targets:

6.1.8.CivicsDP.3.a: Use primary and secondary sources to assess whether or not the ideals found in the Declaration of Independence were fulfilled for women, African Americans, and Native Americans during this time period.

6.1.8.CivicsHR.3.c: Construct an argument to explain how the expansion of slavery violated human rights and contradicted American ideals.

6.1.8.HistoryCC.3.a: Explain how the consequences of the Seven Years War, changes in British policies toward American colonies, and responses by various groups and individuals in the North American colonies led to the American Revolution.

6.1.8.HistoryCC.3.c: Use geographic tools and resources to investigate how conflicts and alliances among European countries and Native American groups impacted the expansion of American territory.

6.1.8.HistoryUP.3.a: Use primary sources as evidence to explain why the Declaration of Independence was written and how its key principles evolved to become unifying ideas of American democracy.

6.1.8.HistoryUP.3.b: Examine the roles and perspectives of various socioeconomic groups (e.g., rural farmers, urban craftsmen, northern merchants, and southern planters), African Americans, Native Americans, and women during the American Revolution, and determine how these groups were impacted by the war.

6.1.8.HistoryUP.3.c: Analyze how the terms of the Treaty of Paris affected United States relations with Native Americans and with European powers that had territories in North America from multiple perspectives.

6.1.8.HistorySE.3.a: Analyze how the leadership of George Washington during the American Revolution and as president allowed for the establishment of American democracy.

6.1.8.HistorySE.3.b: Analyze a variety of sources to make evidence-based inferences about how prominent individuals and other nations contributed to the causes, execution, and outcomes of the American Revolution.

6.2.8.GeoHE.4.b: Use geographic models to determine the impact of environmental modifications made by earlier civilizations on the current day environmental challenges.

8.2.8.ITH.1: Explain how the development and use of technology influences economic, political, social, and cultural issues.

9.1.8.EG.3: Explain the concept and forms of taxation and evaluate how local, state and federal governments use taxes to fund public activities and initiatives.

RH.6-8.7. Integrate visual information (e.g., in charts, graphs, photographs, videos, or maps) with other information in print and digital texts.

In this unit, students will be able to understand, summarize, and analyze original texts of the Bill of Rights. Students will understand the rights and restrictions that are defined by the first ten amendments in the United States Constitution. Students will understand how decisions made by the Supreme Court are based on what is written in the Constitution and in the Bill of Rights. They will become aware of the influence these decisions, based on the Court's interpretations of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, have on American society.

Objectives:

- Students will be able to compile a list of desired basic human rights.
- Students will be able to evaluate how these rights would protect personal freedoms.
- Students will be able to decide how basic rights would be implemented.

-Students will be able to analyze The Bill of Rights.

-Students will be able to summarize the duties and responsibilities of citizens.

-Students will be able to use technology as one form to complete research and analyze various topics.

Essential Questions:

- How does the Bill of Rights protect Americans?
- What are the most important Freedoms in the First Amendment?
- How have different groups gained rights?
- Explain rights v. limits on rights?

Common Core State Standards/Learning Targets:

6.1.8.CivicsPI.3.a: Cite evidence to evaluate the extent to which the leadership and decisions of early administrations of the national government met the goals established in the Constitution.

6.1.8.CivicsPI.3.c: Distinguish the powers and responsibilities of citizens, political parties, interest groups, and the media in a variety of governmental and nongovernmental contexts.

6.1.8.CivicsPD.3.a: Cite evidence to determine the role that compromise played in the creation and adoption of the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

6.1.8.CivicsHR.3.a: Explain how and why constitutional civil liberties were impacted by acts of government during the Early Republic (i.e., Alien and Sedition Acts).

6.1.8.CivicsHR.3.c: Construct an argument to explain how the expansion of slavery violated human rights and contradicted American ideals.

6.1.8.HistoryUP.3.a: Use primary sources as evidence to explain why the Declaration of Independence was written and how its key principles evolved to become unifying ideas of American democracy.

9.4.8.GCA.1: Model how to navigate cultural differences with sensitivity and respect.

Marking Period:	4	Unit Title:	Unit 8: Judicial Branch	Pacing:	15 days
------------------------	---	--------------------	-------------------------	----------------	---------

Unit Summary:

Students will learn about the federal and state courts and what they do. They will explore the courts' role in fairly settling disputes and administering justice, and the unique role of the U.S. Supreme Court in interpreting the U.S. Constitution. The students will also look at the Supreme Court's decisions in monumental court cases in our nation's history.

Objectives:

- Students will be able explain how majority rule affects the making of laws, and why obeying laws is important.
- Students will be able to identify and explain the four types of law?
- Students will be able to describe the roles the courts play in the United States.
- Students will be able to identify which cases are tried in federal courts.
- Students will be able to outline how federal courts are organized.
- Students will be able to explain the Supreme Court's role in the judicial system.
- Students will be able to describe the process through which cases are tried in the Supreme Court.
- Students will be able to explain how justices get appointed to the Supreme Court, and how Congress limits this power.
- Students will be able to use technology as one form to complete research and analyze various topics.

Essential Questions:

- In what ways can government guarantee equal justice under the law?
- How does the Judicial Branch strengthen a country?
- Which branch of the government is most powerful?
- Do you think it is fair that Supreme Court justices serve life terms?
- Which court case do you think has had the biggest impact on America?

Common Core State Standards/Learning Targets:

6.3.8.CivicsPI.1: Evaluate, take, and defend a position on why government is necessary, and the purposes government should serve

6.3.8.CivicsPD.3: Construct a claim as to why it is important for democracy that individuals [to be] are informed by facts, aware of diverse viewpoints, and willing to take action on public issues.

6.3.8.CivicsDP.1: Identify an issue of inequality, develop multiple solutions, and communicate the best one to an appropriate government body

6.3.8.CivicsDP.2: Make a claim based on evidence to determine the extent and the limitations of First Amendment rights (e.g., U.S. Supreme Court decisions).

6.3.8.CivicsPR.5: Engage in simulated democratic processes (e.g., legislative hearings, judicial proceedings, elections) to understand how conflicting points of view are addressed in a democratic society.

9.4.8.TL.2: Gather data and digitally represent information to communicate a real-world problem

RH.6-8.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including vocabulary specific to domains related to history/social studies.
